

11—70.8(20) State held harmless. Employee organizations shall indemnify and hold the state harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits, or other forms of liability which may arise out of any action taken or not taken by the state for the purpose of complying with the provisions of this chapter.